KATHERINE POLK FAILLA, District Judge:

WHEREAS on June 14, 2018, this Court entered a protective order (the "Protective Order") (ECF 34) that required that if any document produced by the Government in discovery is attached to a filing, the filing should initially be made under seal, but then directed that the filing party re-file the documents on the public docket if no timely motion is made to maintain the documents under seal;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Protective Order, counsel for Shor made two sealed filings: (i) a June 9, 2019 letter from Shor's counsel (and its exhibits A through I) regarding cooperator allocutions, and (ii) a June 17, 2019 letter from Shor's counsel (and its exhibit) regarding Dole's redirect (collectively, the "Filings"); the redacted versions of these filings were entered on the docket as ECF 210 and ECF 216 respectively;

WHEREAS no timely motion to maintain sealing was made with respect to the Filings, and thus, the Protective Order by its terms provides that they should be publicly filed; WHEREAS there is no other basis for maintaining the Filings under seal, and the government has indicated to defense counsel that it has no objection to the public filing of the Filings;

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that (i) Shor's June 9, 2019 letter and its exhibits A through I (filed in redacted form as ECF 210), and (ii) Shor's

June 17, 2019 letter and its exhibit (filed in redacted form as ECF 216) be unsealed and placed on the public docket.

SO ORDERED.
